

Become an ACSF Donor

Matching undergraduate and post-graduate students with your business needs

GROW YOUR FUTURE TALENT!

ABOUT

The ACS Foundation (ACSF) seeks to create a highly skilled ICT workforce, by matching businesses with students and education programs. The Foundation facilitates partnerships between industry and students in order to provide academic and project oriented work-integrated learning experiences. By becoming a Foundation donor, you demonstrate your leadership and commitment to Australia's future, by supporting and developing the skills and growth required for tomorrow's workforce.

Over 300 organisations have supported the ACS Foundation, some of whom include Adobe, Commonwealth Bank, Deloitte, Bank West, Telstra, Microsoft, Woolworths, IBM, ZettaServe and most state Government departments. These donor organisations are benefiting today as they nurture tomorrow's ICT leaders.
